Ryan, I am having some serious questions about this. I cannot allow the taking out of my checking account for calls not awarded me. I called both of these customers, one will not answer and the other didn't even give me a chance to bid on the Job. I absolutely cannot allow your company to take money out of my checking account for these things or if I do not actually win the bid.

If you want to restructure things fine, I will give it a go. I just cannot allow this type of structure it could run me broke quickly, its not smart business.. If I win a bid fine but definitely not otherwise. You had given me until tommorrow on the checking account it should still be pending. I will process things on my end just in case there is a problem. I also wasn't expecting to be activated this quickly but I did do everything I could to get a bid in on the two jobs sent. I called the Prescott customer and went out and looked at the job and took some pictures as I road by, noone answered again about an hour before I went by the house and I wasnt going to call again..

I also called earlier in the day to one of your phone lines and someone told me the start up was 140.00 ? I called another just before I spoke with you the last two occasions and he said it was 288.00. I just don't feel comfortable at all the way the last person in Cottonwood behaved and if money is lost this way, this is not acceptable. I really feel your company needs to change that policy. Sorry

Hey Kevin,

I tried giving you a call this morning when I got into the office but wasn't able to get ahold of you. Is there a time you'd be able to chat today to work on restructuring your account more to your own preferences? Let me know what works for you and we can schedule a call.

Regards,

Call or email me to start today. I look forward to helping you grow your business with HomeAdvisor.

Ryan, I spoke with my Bank this morning after I sent my email last night. Upon hearing all the particulars they suggested to shut off my Debit card immediately, in fact I had to go into Walmart with them on the phone and draw money out. In doing so I am on the way driving all the way back to Phoenix to obtain a new Debit card. I did not receive a call from you this morning as you stated, you would do last night. I will converse more later, have to get on road. My password does not work on that account that was set up so I cannot shut off any calls coming in. Please shut off the Calls from "Potential Customers" coming to me. Really unfortunate situation. Kevin Wiederhold.

Ryan, Peterson et al. I have come to the conclusion your Company is a fraud, I have been getting calls from various people, this is not wanted. I have shutdown your website as much as possible yesterday afternoon, including removing any/all so called Catagories of work you created. This matter is over, stop calling me and stop sending fake work projects. Refund my money. This is hard earned money you are stealing and it will not happen. Also the 5 star rating is a fake, not sure who all is responsible with the 'Satisfactory etc comments, real stupid. If Britnary at Bargain Storage is involved I will not be doing work for them any longer. This account is now ruined as well. Thx. Kevin Wiederhold

I am filing a detailed Dispute with my Bank. This was in fact a planned sabotage by/with Gov nutcases and Home Advisor insane stupid pathetic Lawyers who simply awarded you with my hard earned money and even more to attempt a insane sabotage on me. Others have now seen that ridiculous 'rating' stating 'satisfactory' (2-3 star) which slanders and discredits me. No punk or drug addict associated with in or living in Bargain Storage could do anything like the work I done especially those FBI insane weakling coward schizo, afraid to fight scum coming in that place. I see my money still has not been refunded? I am going to start adding interest or 25% a month on all money stolen from now on, This money is needed for other matters immediately. As well, I told my insurance company how I am being insanely sabotaged and ripped off and they agreed it was best to turn off the insurance for now, money and time has been lost here as well.

You also stated you were just going to place a just a 'Ping' on the account and everyone I have spoke to including the Bank took this as just a $1.00 taken out of the account and it wasn't, you took the whole 288.00 well before the 24 hours you stated was given me to decide not to proceed as well you claimed the 'Background check' was going to take at least this long, instead you claim I passed in about 6 hours but the money was already taken out even before that??.

This is all definitely criminal and a orchestrated insane rippoff and attack upon me. Tell your insane lawyers to Refund my money stolen. Tell the tards to take a look at this site. Your Company is now a part of the rest stealing, robbing, sabatoging me with all listed on the 'Corporate Disclosure statements' over the years. I am sure glad I fired 11 of the no good worthless racketeering weakling trash. www.kw-roadside-services.com
